Seek $500 For School Band

Community Box Supper Will Be Held June 11th

Chamber of Commerce to Stage Drive For Funds Thru Membership Campaign for Band

ORGANIZE FRIDAY

Sharman Leads Campaign to Buy Four Big Horns For Band; Work During Summer Months

A campaign will be started immediately to raise $500 for the high school band in order to buy necessary instruments. R. G. Stephenson, director, states that the band is in need of four large horns, which must be bought for the organization in order to secure a balanced instrumentation.

A group of citizens met Friday afternoon and plans were started to have a community box supper on June 11th at the grade school gymnasium, or on the school lawn.

All citizens of the city are urged to make plans now to attend the box supper and to assist in the campaign to raise funds for the band.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning a membership campaign in a short time, and will give part of the proceeds to the band.

R. G. Stephenson, director of the band has been employed by the school board to give full time to the band during the first part of the summer. He states that he has 64 students taking band work. 37 are in the first band, and he lost only three by graduation. A major part of the band is in the 8th grade. 24 youngsters are in the training organization and will be ready to take places in the first band before long. The trips taken by the band this year have been a great aid in development of the youngsters.

W. P. Sharman, president of the Band Parents organization, was named to work on finances. Those attending the meeting Friday were Mr. Sharman, Delbert Lowes, Robt. Foster, Guy Harp, G. W. Cox, W. A. Warren, Irby Carruth, Clyde Warwick, and Mr. Stephenson.

Highway West Will Be Re-topped; Bids Are Up June 4th

The State Highway Commission is advertising for bids on re-topping of highway 33 west from Canyon to the county line. The job will be a double treatment of asphalt in re-topping this pavement.

When this paving was done several years ago only a single course treatment was used, and at that time it was known that re-topping must be done in a short time.

Bids on the job will be opened in Austin on June 4th.

Engineer E. H. Gohmert states that work is progressing rapidly on the paving through Deaf Smith county, and that this work will be completed in about three months.

Conservation To Be Planned Today By Five States

Citizens Will Meet To Plan Plea With Federal Authorities In Lakes and Dams for Plains

Several Canyon citizens will go to Amarillo this morning for the meeting of representatives of five states on the water conservation program. W. A. Warren is vice president in the organization.

The legislature passed the conservation measure two weeks ago, providing for the establishment of the conservation district in the drouth sections. Since that time two organization meetings have been held.

At the meeting today further plans will be discussed, and every step outlined that will be necessary to start the program of building dams and lakes to hold the water which falls in this area.

Congress on Friday authorized $5,000,000 for special conservation work in the drouth territory. It is proposed to send an assistant secretary of Agriculture here to administer affairs in this territory.

A most disquieting phase of conditions in Washington is disclosed by the fact that the Senate lopped 60 millions of dollars from the farm program on Friday.

Carl Hinton will leave for Washington in a few days and will stay until definite action is taken. It is likely that a number of Panhandle citizens will be called to Washington to assist Mr. Hinton in the passage of the measure.

Large Part of Randall Farmers Signed Up

97% of Farmers Signed Work Sheets For 1937 Agricultural Program Is Reported

Practically 97% of the farmers of Randall county have signed the farm worksheets under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation program. The deadline for local signing ended Saturday, but few applications are still in the mails, having been sent to non-residents.

The number of signatures represent fully 98% of the faming land, since a large majority of the applications now out consist of small acreage farms. The large operators of the county almost to a man have signed the 1937 program.

The local committeemen are now signing the worksheets. The county committee is busy assigning base acreage quotas to individual farms. As soon as this is completed, the sheets go to the state committee at College Station for approval. The first shipment of applications will go to the state committee soon, as a test of the work that is being done by the county committee in preparing the contracts for submission. After these have been inspected, the local office will be able to close all of the contracts in the county.

Compliance inspection work is expected to start soon after July first. Acreage diverted from regular crops which is to be contour fallowed must be furrowed not later than July 1, according to a ruling of the State Conservation Committee which has just been announced.

Basement Excavated Monday for Hospital of Dr. R. A. Neblett

The basement for Dr. R. A. Neblett's hospital was excavated Monday. The steam shovel of Coke & Braden did the work.

Workmen are now building the forms for the foundation, and construction on the building is expected to progress rapidly from now on.

George Small has the contract for the hospital construction.

Rev. H. C. Smith of San Jacinto will preach at the local Methodist Church next Sunday morning and Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum will preach in San Jacinto.

T. V. Slack Has Leg Broken When Hit by Automobile

T. V. Slack will be laid up at his home south of Canyon for at least six weeks as the result of a broken leg which he received Sunday night.

The Slack family was returning home from the high school commencement sermon when the car ran into a horse which lay on the pavement near the cemetery. The horse had been knocked down by another car. As Mr. Slack was trying to get his car off of the horse, Fairy Hill and Forest Hill came up in their car, also on their way home. In passing the Slack car and horse, the Hill car hit Mr. Slack, his right leg being broken above the ankle, and a small bone in the ankle also being broken. The accident was termed unavoidable.

Hill Returns To Austin For Final Work Legislature

Dr. J. A. Hill was home over Sunday to look after pressing business matters of W. T. He has been in Austin for two weeks while the legislature was considering appropriations.

The House appropriations committee trimmed the recommendations of the Board of Control 2%. The House started work on the bill Tuesday morning, according to a wire from Representative G. H. Little.

The Senate passed a bill calling for a considerable increase over the recommendations of the Board of Control.

The free conference will write the final bill when the differences between House and Senate are adjusted. Dr. Hill returned to Austin yesterday in order to explain the needs of W. T. to the free conference committee.

The legislature will close Saturday, and Dr. Hill believes that the appropriation bill for the educational institutions will be passed before adjournment time.

Widening Bridges Is Progressing; Expect Funds Balance Work

The work of widening the two bridges north of Canyon is progressing rapidly, stated Engineer E. H. Gohmert. Driving of piling is about complete on the south bridge over the Palo Duro creek.

Mr. Gohmert has not received funds to continue work on widening the highway, but approval has been made on the project at Austin, and funds should be available at once.

Guy Sweeney, E. H. Hudson and Arrell Cummings of Sherman county were here Thursday interviewing teachers. Mr. Sweney and the Newsman were kids together back in Iowa, and both have been in the Panhandle for nearly 29 years.

City Officials Ask Citizens to Aid In Campaign

Cut Weeds, Burn Paper and All Rubbish; Pile Everything That Will Not Burn in Alleys

LEADERS NAMED

City Wagons to Haul Everything That Will Not Burn; Ask That Campaign Be Success

Citizens of Canyon are called upon by the City Commission to stage a city-wide Clean Up Campaign all next week. Mayor C. R. Burrow stated yesterday that he hoped all citizens would join in the campaign and would do a thorough job of cleaning up before weeds get started to growing.

Committees have been named by the City Commission for the various sections of town, and these chairmen will assist the Commission in getting the job efficiently done.

Citizens are asked to cut all weeds on their property and in the alleys.

Pile and burn everything that may be burned.

Clean the wast paper out of the hedges and shrubbery, and see to it that this paper is burned.

Pile everything that will not burn in the alleys so that wagons may haul this rubbish away.

Place all cans, bottles and everything that will not burn either in sacks, or in boxes so that they may be easily dumped onto the wagons.

Clear the alleys of everything that will interfere with the city mowing machine which will be started when the weeds get higher.

Wagons will be started next Thursday morning to haul away the rubbish which cannot be burned. Extra wagons will be put on so that all rubbish may be moved quickly from the alleys and vacant lots.

Those who have old cars or old machinery scattered around town are warned to clean this up, as all such junk will be hauled away to the city dump grounds unless taken care of by the owners.

Mayor Burrow urges that all work of cleaning up be completed by next Thursday morning so as not to force the employment of

The accident occurred about six o'clock as the cars attempted to pass when they met on the country road.

PANHANDLE MEMBER PRESS ASSOCIATION

There are few sessions of the legislature in which it is not proposed to divert some of the gasoline tax to other funds than the purpose for which the tax is imposed. Under the Texas constitution one-fourth of the tax goes to the school fund, which is right and just. At the present time one-fourth of the tax is being used to assume outstanding county bonds on state highways, which is another good use of the money. This leaves one-half of the tax for the highway department. It takes approximately half of the department's money to provide adequate upkeep for the highways. Therefore only one-fourth of the tax remains for new construction. So long as the number of automobiles increase, building new highways will never cease. There are many, many legitimate places in the state for building highways, such as the proposed scenic drive from Canyon to Memphis through the beautiful Palo Duro Canyon. All attempts to chizel in on the highway funds have been repelled in Texas. Not so in other states. Some of the eastern states use as much as 65% of the gasoline tax for other purposes. This coupled with the sales tax which is imposed in most eastern states, collects millions of dollars from tourists for the support of various functions of government.

Randall county farmers have established a name for themselves in Texas. The farmers of Randall county have the best organization in the state, and have done more for the interest of agriculture than the farmers of any other county in the state. The necessity of the times put the farmers in the right frame of mind to carry out all phases of the governmental program. But other factors are of vital importance even in the case of necessity: First, a county agent, who knows his business; second, the election of district leaders who are outstanding as farmers and are willing to devote the necessary time to the job. Randall county has both of these leaders. It will be a very fine thing if the lessons of the depression and the drouth remain with us for a long while. The idea of organization is very necessary in all phases of endeavor. A few years ago it was said that farmers could not be organized for any kind of popular movement. Perhaps that was true in the past, but it should never be true in the future. A sound governmental program for agriculture is certain to be established, and farmers today know the benefits of close co-operation for their own good and their own protection.

The legislature has decided to adjourn Saturday of this week. This means sometime Sunday, as it will be necessary to run the clocks back time and time again in order to wind up appropriation bills. Whether the legislature will finally dispose of all appropriation bills and pass some sort of a tax measure depends entirely upon the work of the last three days. The Senate is holding tax measures until it sees the amount of the appropriations. Since the Governor refuses to approve of the plan to submit the sales tax to a vote of the people, it is unlikely that the Senate will be in a hurry to pass any kind of new taxes, in spite of the present 16 million dollar deficit. However, Governor Allred has announced that unless the Senate votes on repeal of the race horse gambling bill, he will put the legislature to work again next Monday morning on that single bill. There would be no chance then of the Senate stalling off a vote directly upon repeal. After that is passed the Governor could submit other measures.

Readers of The News should study the six constitutional amendments which are published in this issue. These amendments will be voted upon in August at a special election. The reader will find that the one proposed extending the term of office for county, precinct and district officers is not published. This measure, together with the one increasing the pay of legislators to $3,000 per year, were passed by the House and killed in the Senate through inaction. The Senate found that the entire election system would have to be overhauled if the four term was adopted. Since a very small number of taxpayers paid their poll taxes this year, the number of votes in the special election will be small. Probably not more than 400,000 of the 1,150,000 voters of Texas will take the time to go to the polls in August. That is the tragedy of putting up constitutional amendments in special elections on years when other elections are not held.

Now that the King has been safely crowned, the question in the public mind goes back to Davie and Wally. The British government is determined to dictate in the matter of their marriage now the same as it did when Edward was forced in December to abdicate. It is said that his family has provided an income of $150,000 per year—on which they should be able to get along, considering the fact that the average American family lives on less than $1500 per year. But the famous couple hold the whip hand over the government and over the snooty royalty, if they wish to crack the whip. If they should announce that they would accept a movie contract in Hollywood or else be accorded the rights of the other loafers of royalty, the government would no doubt give in and that with great haste.

The power of great names has greatly diminished. During the heyday of the first J. P. Morgan, he became ill while traveling in Egypt. He wanted to see the pyramids, but was too sick to walk. The guide suggested a wheel chair for the famous financier. The characteristic reply came from Morgan: "If the United States heard that I was unable to walk, the stock market would crash." Maybe true to some extent. But last Wednesday his son, the present J. P. Morgan, was too ill to see the coronation, and nothing was thought about it in this country, except to wonder if he lost the investment in his knee pants.

The Hindenburg was destroyed last week because of the hard headedness of Hitler. Americans have wondered for sometime why Dr. Eckener was being punished by the Hitler government, and it now leaks out that it was because he insited that helium be used to inflate the Hindenberg instead of using flamable gas. Hitler won his argument; Eckener was deposed as commander of the big zep; the machine exploded, killing 35 men, injuring 50 more, and causing a loss of $2,500,000. No one man can know everything; in this case Hitler proved to be the jackass, since this government offered him helium for the zep.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce in convention last week again called upon the legislature to pass a sales tax and repeal the ad valorem tax. It was asked that the people be given a chance to vote upon the proposal. The legislature has refused to allow the people the opportunity to express their opinion, or rather their choice between a sales tax and ad valorem tax. Next year is election year. Perhaps some candidate for governor will propose a sound tax platform to the people. All that we have had in the past has been tax evasion.

GREATER HORIZONS

Graduates of today face many problems due to the growing complexities of our natural life. For the past six years the future facing young men and women between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five has been dark. The clouds are lifting now, but improving conditions do not eliminate the uncertainties and the doubts that face all young people at a certain stage of life.

To these young graduates The Leader has this to say: There are distinct hardships and limitations facing you. The chance for easy success and a shallow victory is denied you, but for this very reason there is before you today the opportunity for a fundamental success in life and a great victory in your own soul.

This is nothing new. Great obstacles always have brought forth great achievements. It was so when man emerged from his primitive caves and civilization began. It was thus when a handful of martyrs faced relentless religious persecution, and by their steadfastness, enabled Christianity to encircle the globe. It was true when a group of pilgrims braved the dangers of a hostile wilderness. Your own immediate forbears saw it when the destitute people of the South started in to rebuild their shattered homes. And even in the memory of men still hale and hearty, it was known in this county by the pioneers.

Thus it has ever been and thus it will continue to be. Great obstacles bring forth great achievements. Before you is a glorious opportunity. The westward surge to empire is gone. The undeveloped rich lands have disappeared. The exploitation of raw resources is finished. But the day of pioneering is not done, and the years will teach you that it will never die.

Before you are greater horizons than your fathers ever knew. Today we live in one of the best governed lands in the world, but we are only in our infancy in developing good government. The free land is gone, but we are only beginning to learn how to make our land produce according to its capacity. As a people we have only touched the edges of scientific development. As a nation, we, as well as the rest of the world, are helpless tottering babes as far as working out a perfect economic and social scheme is concerned.

These are only a few of the thousands of opportunities that lie before you, providing you are prepared to grasp them. You can help in solving present day problems by finding a place for yourself in life by preparing yourself to fill it. Start now to do that work which is before you. Don't let the present status of one kind of work keep you from it, for tomorrow it may be our most honored undertaking. Know now that distinguished work is achieved. It is a result of some person's effort, and the job itself was only the mechanical means by which they reached their great heights.

Arthur Vandenburg, U. S. Senator from Michigan: "Such situations (sit-down strikes) cannot be successfully controlled with guns and bayonets."

Dr. Jarrett and Mr. Savage had made a survey investigating the practice of the San Marcos college in its teacher-training and laboratory school system in connection with co-operation of the public school system and the college.

Miss Dennis had attended a meeting of the homemaking representatives of all state-aid colleges, called by Miss Ruth Huey, state director of Homemaking Education in Texas. Miss Marie White, federal agent of the southern region, conducted the conference where standards of Homemaking which should be maintained in colleges were discussed and plans were made for the Homemaking program for the next five years were made.

Dr. Jarrett and Mr. Savage spent Monday in San Marcos, as guests of the college, where they visited in the public schools. The San Marcos college has no separate demonstration school, but co-operates with the public schools in placing students for teacher-training.

The State Department of Education had also called a meeting at Austin concerning a revision of curriculum for teacher training. Dr. Jarrett and Mr. Savage were delegates to this meeting during their stay in Austin.

The instructors made several visits to the legislature.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low — with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service — for parts — and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.

Community Prosperity Is Based Upon Individual Effort and Cooperation

Every citizen in this vicinity should do his bit toward making the community a better place in which to live. Our community pride and progress will not only benefit the country as a whole, but will give us, as individuals, a greater measure of comfort and happiness, which is the goal of human existance.

It has been pointed out by well known civic authorities that communities are not built through mass effort, but through the combination of individual efforts and the cooperation of individual citizens.

To benefit our community, each and every one of us should put forth our very best efforts every day in the year. Successful and faithful individuals make a prosperous community.

BRIDAL SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. CRISTLER CRAIN

Between the hours of three and five o'clock Friday afternoon, May 14, a group of women of the Baptist Church gathered at the home of Mrs. J. R. Hicks on Third Avenue. Mrs. Hicks was away at the time and was greatly surprised when she returned to find her home full of unexpected callers.

The affair turned out to be a miscellaneous bridal shower for Mrs. Christler Crain of Tell, who before her recent marriage was Miss Betty Hicks, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Hicks. The honoree could not be present for the occasion as she is teaching at Tell.

The bride's alphabet contest was conducted and a recipe for husband conserve was given by Mrs. T. C. Gooch.

As Royal Coach Passed in Review

Final rehearsal for Britain's "biggest show," the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, required the use of the regal royal coach, as shown in this photo. Here coachmen are guiding the state carriage through the Admiralty Arch en route to Westminster Abbey, scene of the official crowning. Over miles of London's streets the procession moved, much as it was to move on Coronation Day itself, in order that perfect timing of the event might be obtained. Huge crowds turned out for the pre-view, jamming London's streets to the curbs. Note the coronation bleachers at the extreme right.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

Come To Recital Tonight!

VOL. NO. 11. CANYON, TEXAS, MAY 20, 1937. NUMBER 34

Howdy, folks:

Wal, I guess hits about the last days in ole C. H. S. for them seniors. Tomorrow they'll walk the aisle in the auditorium for the last time as a part of the student body. I'll say I never saw so many down and out kids as they is these last few days, especially at that banquet they had so much fun at. Seems as how Mr. Brown sure likes to tell jokes. And I guess the Seniors is having a good time today at their picnic their room mother, Mrs. Bellah, is giving them.

That Press Club sure fixed up the last time with eats from nearly everywhere. Somebody ask John B. if he likes marshmallows.

The juniors must appreciate Sarah Thompson's get-up-and-git, because they put her back up there on the honor choir as prexy for next year. (Well, Sarah, here's a private note from me to you: I want to hand you a bouquet, because I sure think you're a swell little worker. Keep going!)

Those soph girls did a good job serving that banquet, and they sure looked nice in their loyal purple and white. And that was just about the best-cooked food I ever put a tooth in, especially to be at a banquet.

The Seniors and Eagles really had a terrible battle down at Buffalo Field. Luck to you, Eagles; I hope you don't need it.

Yours till the Seniors of '37 get dignified.

AFTER THIS, THEN WHAT?

Music from the pipe organ begins to roll through the packed church auditorium. The men sit still, the women cease their gossip, the children are hushed. Sweet, cool breezes from a starlit night float through open stained-glass windows.

Suddenly at the auditorium doors appear two students in their impressive caps and gowns. The assembly rises. More and more students in regalia file down the long aisles. A prayer from the lips of the pastor—a still deep hush—"Amen." The seats squeak—announcements, the scripture reading, the clear, sweet voices of young girls, the sermon, a song—then the recessional, and the final rush for the door, the outside, and the cool breezes.

Commencement sermon! Graduation! The feeling that life is waiting with open arms and that college doors are standing wide must be a wonderful one. Still, many a senior has looked back to his high school days with wistful longing. But progress is the law of life. The seniors have their careers ahead of them, and here's wishing for them all the success and happiness in the world.

SENIORS' LAST FAREWELL

The graduation exercise Friday night ends an outstanding chapter in the lives of 44 seniors of Canyon high school.

As we recall our associations with those who have shared our pleasure and discomforts for the past four years, we find that we are leaving some of the most congenial students and teachers ever to be assembled in a high school.

It is pleasant to look back on occurrences of the past year, such as the 1936 football season, the Hereford football game, the basketball seasons, the Junior-Senior banquet, the Junior play, the Senior play, the Queen contest, and other things too numerous to mention.

As we say farewell to Canyon High School, we sincerely hope that the classes to follow will enjoy all the things that we have enjoyed and many others.

Seniors Give Kettle Drums To Canyon High School Band

The kettle drums for the band, which the senior class of this year has given to the school, arrived last week. The seventy-five dollars that the seniors paid for the drums was raised from the high school queen contest.

"The band has needed kettle drums very badly," states Mr. R. G. Stephenson, director. "One reason that we did not rate any higher in our contests was lack of instruments; therefore, the band is especially appreciative of the drums."

It has not been decided how the surplus money that the class has will be spent.

Shirley Speaks at Junior-Senior Banquet

Mr. D. A. Shirley, registrar at the college, was the main speaker for the annual junior-senior banquet, held last Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Randall Hall. The theme of Mr. Shirley's "bon voyage" talk was "Whatever you do, do it the very best way that you can." He also brought out the point that the only real success and happiness in life comes from serving others.

Mr. Gerald Brown, junior sponsor and toastmaster for the occasion, introduced Sarah Thompson, junior class president, who wished the seniors "Happy Landings" as a welcome. Willard Childers, senior president, responded.

Other numbers on the program included three vocal solos by O. T. Craig of the college; two piano solos by Miss Royce Park, also of the college; and a cornet solo by Mr. R. G. Stephenson of the high school faculty, accompanied at the piano by Miss Gwendolyn Black, music teacher in the elementary school. Mr. Stephenson also led the guests in group singing. Mr. Gordon Beck, teacher in the elementary grades, gave a humorous reading; and Lillian Chambers read the prophecy for the senior class.

The toastmaster next read the names of various seniors who have been outstanding in scholarship, athletics, and literary activities during their years in school. He then introduced Mr. Emil Hutto, class sponsor; Mrs. Alfred Bellah, class room mother; Mrs. Ora Newlin, junior room mother; and Superintendent I. B. Carruth; each of whom made a short talk. After members of the high school faculty had been asked to stand, Mr. John B. Pope, high school principal, wished the seniors "Au Revoir." The entire group sang the school song in closing.

The sophomore girls from the home economics classes served the meal, which consisted of the following menu: fruit juice cocktail, ham loaf, asparagus tips, sweet potato balls, gelatin salad, pickles, celery, hot rolls, butter, iced tea, mints and strawberry shortcake. Approximately 110 guests were present.

P. T. A. Discusses Child Welfare

"The welfare of the child is the foundation of the Parent-Teachers Association," stated Mrs. Dan Sanders, president of the local organization, in a school of instruction for new officers last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was in the music room of the grade school building.

Mrs. Sanders conducted the meeting in the form of an informal discussion. She discussed the organization and policies of the P. T. A, bringing out the facts that the organization has always been non-commercial, non-partisan, and non-sectarian. Duties of the various officers were also discussed.

After the meeting, the group went to the home of Mrs. J. B. Morrisset, where refreshments were served.

GRADE NOTES

A surprise birthday party was given Monday for Austell Burrus. Games were played in the gym, and ice cream and cake were served to the first grade pupils and to their teacher, Mrs. T. W. Collins, by Mrs. B. A. Burrus.

Mrs. Ola Beason's second grade has just completed a unit on ranch life. The ranch house was modeled after that at the T-Anchor Ranch. The pupils also built a windmill and a silo and corrals and pens around the ranch house and barn.

Colleen Bramlet has moved to Commerce.

Marie Steen and Dorothy Prichard entertained the 6-B class with a party this week. Games were played and ice cream and cake were served.

WARWICK AND FLESHER ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Dorothy Warwick and Natalie Flesher entertained a group of high school students with a party at the home of the former last Thursday evening. Dancing, ping-pong, and card games furnished entertainment, and refreshments of punch, sandwiches, and cookies were served to thirty-four high school guests and to Mrs. Ora Newlin, junior room mother.

Breitling Elected Pres. of F.F.A.

The Canyon Chapter of the F. F. A. met last Monday night to elect officers for the following year. This was the last meeting of the club during the school year.

The meeting was opened with the regular ceremony.

The officers for the following year are J. D. Breitling, president; Eston Breitling, vice president; Herbert Kuhlman, secretary; Glen Moss, first reporter, and Glen Campbell, second; D. A. Butler, treasurer; Joe Gill, historian; Barnett Ball, farm watch dog; and Eston Breitling, song leader.

The club decided to get stationery with F. F. A, and the names of all officers on it, for their own convenience and recognition. The dues for the following year were set at $1.00. Meetings will be held during the summer. The first meeting was set for June 5th, and at that time the regular meeting dates will be set.

Melvin Calliham, treasurer of the club, will write letters of appreciation to all the men who have helped to establish this club in Canyon.

After the business was attended to, ice cream and cookies were served.

The meeting was closed with the F. F. A. ceremony.

Whew! Too Hot For The Seniors

"Whew!" howled a dignified senior when the weather jumped to 750½ degrees just at dinner time the afternoon of the first Monday of this week. The gowns came open and the seniors were sweating like Niagara Falls in the middle of the summer.

Lavert awoke during civics after his regular afternoon nap and found it necessary to swim his way out, for he had made an abundance of sweat during his hog-calling sleep and slight snore. Kate Donnell said that she and a few other girls liked the hot weather, for the cold weather "is hard on us slim girls." Sherman Higdon said that if it was this hot commencement night he wasn't going to wear any pants so that the air would circulate beneath the gown. Carolyn said that she was as warm as an Eskimo hanging out the clothes to dry on the equator. Herschel complained that it was too hot to sleep in English class. Editor Collins even felt the heat and complained that she was twice as lazy as usual (if you can imagine that); for she usually has enough energy to sit up in class, but Monday she had to lie down. It's a good thing that the heat didn't affect C. L. like this, for he didn't make it to school as it was. Billy wore her gown all day, but I think she had a block of ice under it. Marielle Oldham was rather warm, so she decided to come to school in her bathing suit. Melvin complained that between the heat and his loud snoring, he was unable to go to sleep in any of his classes.

I would tell you more if my typewriter wasn't so lazy, but the heat is affecting even it; so I had better close.

BOOK REVIEW

"Lorna Doone," an old favorite by R. D. Blackmore, is a romance of Exmoor. The incidents, characters, scenery, and time are romantic. The outlines of this book and the situations are more warmly colored and quickened than a reader would expect to find in what is called a "legend."

John Ridd's life and that of any persons of Exmoor was filled with exciting happenings, such as the savage deeds of the outlaw Doones in the depth of Bogworthy Forest; the beauty of the hapless maid brought up in the midst of them; even John Ridd's Herculean power, and the exploits of Tom Faggus.

Everyone will enjoy this entertaining book which Blackmore has written as somewhat of a biography of John Ridd, yoeman and church warden of the parish of Oare.

EDITORIAL

We believe in giving credit where credit is due.

The Eagle's Tale each year tries to give due credit to those who earn it. To those who have won honors for our school, we praise them through out news stories. To those who have done queer or amazing things, we notice them in our features and columns. But who thinks of all the work that is put out each Monday in order for the paper to come out? Very few. However, we do not expect you to. But now that school is ending, I want to remind you that we must give credit to this year's hard working staff for a paper which has won recognition in both local and state contests.

Meet The Seniors

Hardine Fogge

Since Hardine Rogge's ambition is to become an artist, she draws pictures as a hobby. She likes people who are pleasant and attractive. She is not particular about her foods; and as for men, they do not worry her much.

Scott Downing

Scott's hobby is unusual clothing—note his bright red trousers. He wants to become a clothes designer, and he may consider inventing new colors for clothes. He likes all girls; their color scheme doesn't matter.

Forest Hill

Forest, the man who likes short, dark complexioned girls with brown eyes, is really ambitious. He is planning to invent a machine that will use correct English so that he will have no trouble with this subject in college. Since Forest likes civics so well, he will probably become one of America's leading statesmen.

Wandell Johnson

Wandell, better known as "Boots" plans to be a big filling station man. He is now working in the Phillips 66 station. Boots' pet subject is geometry. His favorite movie star is Tyrone Power.

Douglas Loudder

Douglas is to become one of the great naturalists of America. His hobby is farming. He likes about "one in a million" girls, and his favorite food is watermelon.

Jack Middleton

The 1936 football captain's ambition is to become captain of an All-American football team. He likes almost any blonde, just so she is good looking. His hobby is athletics.

R. E. Prichard

R. E., better known as "Pritch," is intending to be a great sports writer. He got his start writing articles for the Eagle's Tale. His ambition is to get first-hand stories on the Olympics. He may later settle down and be a farmer.

Carruth Presents Diplomas

Seventh grade graduation exercises were held last night at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. The pupils in the seventh grade who have been taking piano lessons from Mrs. Lee Foster this year were presented in a short recital as the first part of the program.

Those who took part in the recital were Edith Neff, Lucile Davis, Dorothy Heath, and Doris Marie Ball. The Girls' Chorus from the seventh grade also sang two selections during this part of the program.

After the musical recital, Superintendent I. B. Carruth made a short talk and presented diplomas to members of the class. The group then stood and sang, "Texas, Our Texas."

STAFF HAS REFRESHMENTS AT FINAL MEETING

Margaret Stewart, Marie O'Donald, and Carolyn Mayfield entertained the Press Club at their final meeting last Monday.

After preparing copy for the Eagle's Tale, the journalists were served sandwiches, pickles, olives, cookies, marshmallows, punch, and fruit on the high school lawn.

BROWN ENTERTAINS JUNIORS

Mr. Gerald Brown, sponsor of the junior class, entertained the class Saturday evening with a party at the home of Mrs. J. D. Gamble. He was assisted by Natalie Flesher.

Dancing, ping-pong, and card games were the main features of the evening. Punch was served throughout the party.

Jimmy Carr will leave Monday for Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he will spend the summer with his sister, Mrs. Bill Charles.

Lola Mae Carr is moving to Fairview for the summer.

Answer to this week's Guess Who?—Mr. Morris.

Dr. H. M. Cook Will Deliver Commencement Address Friday

Faculty Scatters For Summer

High school faculty members will soon be scattered far and wide, as they plan to spend the summer in many different ways.

Superintendent I. B. Carruth will spend most of the summer in New York, attending Columbia University. Mr. John B. Pope, principal, will also be in school, at the University of Texas, where he will be an assistant instructor during the summer. Mr. Emil Hutto, teacher of history and football coach, will finish the work for his master's degree at West Texas State this summer; and Miss Pauline Crittenden, teacher of typing and English and sponsor of The Eagle's Tale, will probably be in school at Denton Teachers College, where she plans to take printing and linotyping.

Miss Mattie Jordan, librarian and teacher of English, will be at home in Tulia this summer. Mr. H. G. Moore, speech teacher, will spend two weeks in the mountains and then return to his home in Canyon. Mr. Milton Sanders, manual training teacher, will go on a fishing trip to Eagles Nest Lake and then work in the harvest (if there is one!)

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel, home economics teacher, will spend the summer in school at Ames, Iowa; Mr. Milton Morris, vocational-agriculture teacher and basketball coach, will spend six weeks in Canyon and then go to Texas Tech for six weeks. Mr. R. G. Stephenson, science teacher and band director, will spend eight weeks here, directing the band school, and the rest of the summer at his home in Abilene. Miss Grace Clark, mathematics teacher, is undecided as to how she will spend the vacation period.

Two of the faculty who will have a real vacation tour are Miss Jewell Foster, teacher of Spanish and history, and Mr. Gerald Brown, history and civics teacher. Both will visit Mexico City. Miss Foster will spend the rest of the summer at her home in Dumas; While Mr. Brown will return to Austin, where he will attend the University of Texas.

La Tertulia Elects Future Officers

Billy Black, program chairman for La Tertulia for the past year, was elected president of the club for next year at a recent meeting. Other officers elected at the same time are vice president Jimmy Pope; secretary-treasurer, Sarah Thompson; and program chairman, Helen Johnson. Assistants on the program committee are Mildred Tucker and Joe Harry Roberts. The club reporter has not yet been elected.

The club discussed the possibility of a year-book for next year, but no definite plans were made concerning it.

Oh, Boy! Some Football Game!

"Ouch! Get off my face!"

"Quit jumping up and down on me!"

"Ooof! Do you have to stick your fist in my face?"

Don't go 'way, folks; it really isn't a gang-fight. It's only slighting remarks caught here and there on the sidelines during the Senior-Eagle football game last Wednesday. And there was due cause for some of these remarks, too.

For example, both the Pope boys walked off the field with their faces looking like the remains of a shinny players shins. And Joe Gill showed signs of having been in a battle that was subject to a lot of conflict. Although these are not the only ones, they are the most noticeable among that congregation of big and little gridironers.

However, it can all be explained. This affair is an annual expectation in Canyon High School, and everybody is resolved to make the best of the opportunity. The Eagles resolved to beat the Seniors and vice versa; so what more (or less) could you expect? Let us look at the facts. We observe that both sides of the fracas do much loud talking about what they can do to the opposition, and it is evident that they must do all they can to back it up or they will never live it down.

The result:

"I didn't say we could beat you. I only said we ought to beat the socks off you, because you are not organized."

"No, sir. I haven'e bragged about beating your ears down; so you can't say anything to me."

See there? It is all so simple; but more fun.

Dr. Harris M. Cook, dean of men at West Texas State Teachers College and also vice president of the local board of education, will deliver the commencement address Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Mr. Alfred Bellah, member of the board, will present the diplomas to the graduates.

Mr. Bellah is the father of J. C. Bellah, a member of the graduating class. This will make the fourth year that a father of one of the seniors has presented the diplomas. In 1932, Mr. W. H. Stroud presented the diplomas to the class of which his son Ogden was a member. T. V. Slack and his classmates received their diplomas from Mr. T. V. Slack. Mr. G. W. Cox, father of Wesley and Sewell Cox, presented the diplomas in 1936.

Miss Gwendolyn Black will have charge of the commencement music, assisted by the Choral Club.

Sunday night the Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, of the First Methodist Church preached the Commencement Sermon. The Rev. Earl Craig, pastor of the Church of Christ, read the scripture. The Rev. Charles Dickey of the Presbyterian Church pronounced the invocaotion. Miss Black and her Choral Club also had charge of the music for this occasion.

Birthdays and Deaths Of Noted During May

Hail, bounteous May, that doth inspire
Mirth, and youth, and warm desire;
Woods and groves are of thy dressing,
Hill and dale doth boast thy blessing. —Milton.

The name of the month of May comes from either Maia, the Roman Goddess of Spring, or from Majoris, which means "older," so called because May is sacred to older men. The flower of May is the hawthorn and the gem, the emerald.

The birthdays of eight noted people are in May. Horace Mann, the great educator, was born on May 4, 1796. On May 6, 1758, the great leader of the revolutionists in France, Maximillian Robespierre was born. Robert E. Peary, the man who discovered the North Pole, was born May 6, 1856. A great writer, Robert Browning, was born May 7, 1812. Florence Nightingale, a great nurse, was born May 12, 1826. On May 25, 1806, Ralph Waldo Emerson, a great New England writer was born. Patrick Henry, the man who made "Give me liberty or give me death" famous, was born on May 29, 1736. Walt Whitman, the great western poet, was born May 31, 1819.

Two famous personages died in the month of May. Joan of Arc was put to death on May 30, 1431. "Stonewall" Jackson died on May 10, 1863.

The Lusitania was torpedoed on May 7, 1915, by the Germons. This was what caused the entrance of the United States into the World War.

Other noteworthy dates in May are as follows:

The second Sunday in May is Mother's Day.

Lindbergh made his non-stop flight to Paris on May 21, 1927.

The first telegram message was sent on May 24, 1844.

Memorial Day is May 30.

Byrd reached the North Pole by airplane on May 9, 1926.

GUESS WHO?

Last but not least as we come to the end,
We see a tall man who is not so thin.
He is one of the faculty who is here to stay;
At least for another year, he is not on his way.
He's the athletic type and vocationally-trained;
When it comes to basketball, he doesn't refrain.

Answer to last Guess Who?—Lillian Chambers.

Mary Bourn spent the week end in Amarillo, where she visited her cousin, Mildred Bourn.

Wilda Marsh spent Saturday in Amarillo.

Fern Walters spent the week end in Happy visiting friends.

Chambers Editor Next Year, Ass't. O'Donald

Lillian Chambers, senior next year, was elected Tuesday morning as editor of the Eagle's Tale for the coming year. Marie O'Donald, also a senior next year will be the assistant editor.

Lillian has been active in journalism for the past two years. She is a member of the Pep Squad and of the Stagecrafters and is active in debate.

The assistant editor is cheer leader for the Pep Squad next year and is treasurer for the Senior Class. She has been an active member of the Eagle's Tale Staff all during the past year.

The editors were selected by a committee composed of Mary Collins, editor of this year's Eagle's Tale; Superintendent I. B. Carruth, Mr. John B. Pope, principal, and Miss Pauline Crittenden, sponsor of the Eagle's Tale.

Music, Expression Pupils Presented

The public is cordially invited to attend the recital of the advanced music pupils of Mrs. Lee Foster this evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Pupils who will be presented in piano solos are Martha Frances Campbell, Lonetta O'Dell, Beulah Hammond, Bernard Warren, Martha Lee Foster, Renna Beth Bellah, Anna Lee Newlin, Billie Davis, and Martha Joe Newlin.

The following will be presented in piano duets: Martha Frances Campblel, Renna Beth Bellah; Bernard Warren, Billie Davis; Beulah Hammond, Anna Lee Newlin; Renna Beth Bellah, Martha Joe Newlin.

Two instrumental numbers, a cornet solo by Hudson Prichard, Jr., and a trombone solo by Martha Frances Campbell, will also appear on the program.

Tuesday evening pupils of the music and expression departments, directed by Mrs. Foster and Mr. Gordon Beck, presented a joint recital. Those appearing on the program were Billie Marie Money, Carlene Scott, Ann Crawford, Claudine Foster, Frances Alice Harp, Ellen Sanders, Mary Ann Bellah, Ben Carolyn Dunaway, Jane Campbell, Martha Hammond, Beulah Hammond, Thomas Harold Thompson, Leroy Wooten, H. R. Fulton, Jr., Carolyn Black, Martha Jean Dowd, Barbara Michael, and Anita Davis, in musical selections; and Martha Hammond, Arthur Duncan, and Felix Shuman, from the expression department.

Well, folks, the Eagle-Senior game was a whopper. It was a hard-fought, evenly matched game for both teams, as the final score was nothing to nothing, in favor of everybody.

The Eagles ended their spring grid season last Thursday. Coach Hutto stated that he thought he and assistant Coach Brown had put quite a bit of football into the boys' upper stories.

By the way, you should observe some of our high school representatives playing tennis at the college courts. Mr. Stephenson is a "bodilly" at the game. He swats those balls in any old direction. Anne Maxwell, Jimmy Pope, and Joe Gill also go in for tennis in a big way.

Mr. Beck is putting the finishing touches on his baseball league. Last week he was observed pitching. He turns around a couple of times and then throws the ball in a fast, fancy way. You've really got the tricks, Mr. Beck.

Mr. Carruth and Mr. Morris are taking exercises every day now. They're reducing because they ate so much chicken during Coach Hutto's absence.

Well, so long, folks. We'll see you the first of next year's sport season.

Sincerely,
Sporty Shorty.

BOARD ENTERTAINS COUNTY SCHOOL

Last Monday night the Canyon Public School Board of Trustees and their wives entertained the county school board members and their wives in the high school auditorium with a band concert.

Following the concert, refreshments were served to the guests in the home economics room.

Guests from the following schools were present: Palo Duro, Wilson, Lakeside, Ralph, Tierra Blanca, and Jowell.

Mr. Emil Hutto is leaving shortly after school is out for Lake Kemp, south of Vernon, on a fishing trip.

Miniature Village Being Constructed For Art School

A miniature village is being built in the scenic Palo Duro Canyon State Park in preparation for the opening of the second annual Palo Duro School of Art, sponsored by the art department of W. T., which opens June 2 under the direction of Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the department.

Twenty-five screened-in cabins with canvas roofs are being constructed on the first level below the Lodge to accommodate Art School students while the school is in progress. The building program has been authorized by the State Park Board, and work is being done by the CCC.

Each cabin accommodates two or three students. Conveniences include running water, electric lights, and showers. A unit for camp cooking is under construction for the use of those who wish to prepare their own meals. Meals will also be served at Coronado Lodge

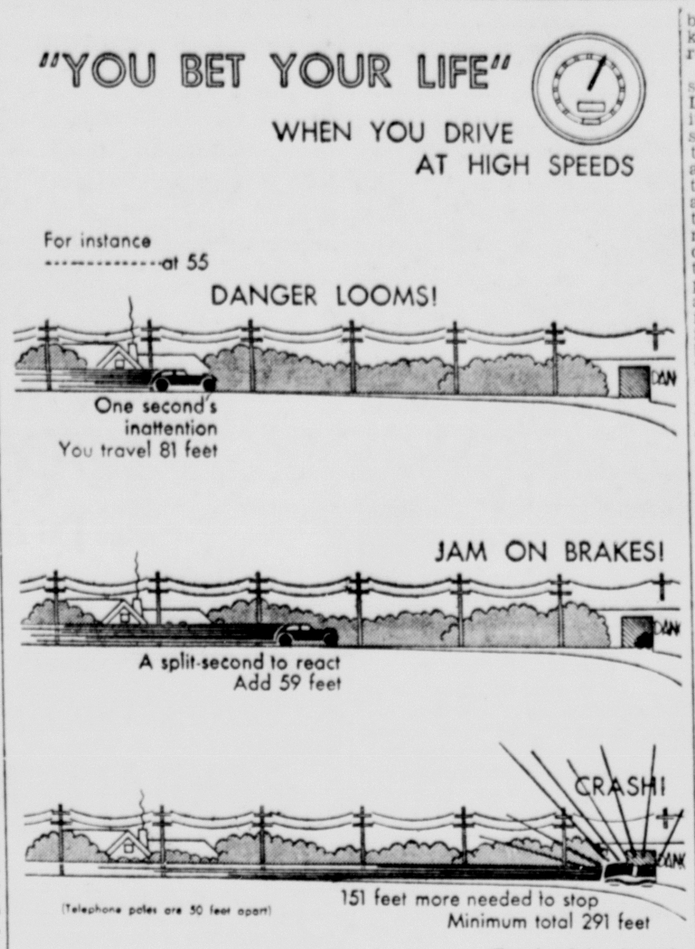
A good trail has been built from the Lodge to the flats below, Miss Robinson assured, adding that it will be possible to obtain parking privileges for trailers or tents if desired.

The studio will be located in the Coronado Lodge as it was in 1936.

Enrollment is expected to show an increase over last year, Miss Robinson said. A number of natonally-known artists will be visitors during the Art School, and Miss Robinson and Miss Marilyn Miller of the W. T. Department of Art will be in charge.

The school opens June 2, and closes July 13.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!



Put this question to ten of your friends who drive:

"When you are going 40 miles an hour on a dry, level road, what is the shortest distance in which you can bring your car to a full stop?"

If they are average, seven will say they can stop in 40 feet or less; two will guess somewhere between 40 and 80 feet; and one will be so uncertain that he won't hazard a guess.

It is surprising to discover how little the average man knows about the first principle of good driving.

You can assure your friends that if they do stop their cars in less than 40 feet from a speed of 40 miles an hour, it will be because they have rammed into a brick wall or a telephone pole! Only an automobile with very good brakes can stop in less than 80 feet from this speed, and it is impossible for any car to stop in 50 feet on an ordinary road because it will skid farther than that with all four wheels locked.

The pictorial chart above shows the danger of driving at high speeds At 55 miles per hour a car travels 81 feet in the single second during which the driver's eyes might leave the road to glance at a road sign or to look at an instrument on the dashboard. Once he sees a dangerous situation ahead, the car travels 59 feet during the time it takes him to get his foot from the accelerator to the brake. And then, even with good brakes, he cannot bring the vehicle to a stop in less than 151 feet.

Many drivers pride themselves on how fast they can make their cars go; it is much more important for them to know how fast they can stop.

S. J. R. No. 16
A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 52, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 52d; providing that the Legislature may authorize by law, after a majority vote of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein, the adoption of a plan for the construction of paved roads and bridges or both in Harris County and in road districts therein; providing for the levy of a tax to pay for such construction; providing for the necessary proclamation; and appropriating funds to defray the expenses of the proclamation; publication, and election.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Section 52, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding thereto another section to be known as Section 52d, which shall read as follows:

"Section 52d: Upon the vote of a majority of the resident qualified electors owning rendered taxable property therein so authorizing, a county or road district may collect an annual tax for a period not exceeding five (5) years to create a fund for constructing lasting and permanent roads and bridges or both. No contract involving the expenditure of any of such fund shall be valid unless, when it is made, money shall be on hand in such fund.

"At such election, the Commissioners' Court shall submit for adoption a road plan and designate the amount of special tax to be levied; the number of years said tax is to be levied; the location, description, and character of the roads and bridges; and the estimated cost thereof. The funds raised by such taxes shall not be used for purposes other than those specified in the plan submitted to the voters. Elections may be held from time to time to extend or discontinue said plan or to increase or diminish said tax. The Legislature shall enact laws prescribing the procedure hereunder.

"The provisions of this section shall apply only to Harris County and road districts therein."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State on the fourth Monday in August, 1937, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the amendment to the Constitution providing that Harris County and any road district therein may upon a vote of the people therein adopt a road plan and levy taxes for road and bridge construction in lieu of the issuance of bonds"; those voters opposing said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the amendment to the Constitution providing that Harris County and any road district therein may upon a vote of the people therein adopt a road plan and levy taxes for road and bridge construction in lieu of the issuance of bonds."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

The group stayed at Black River Village.

Students making the trip were: Carl Abbott, Jewell Burgess, Gwen Byars, Ruth Campbell, Anita Cleland, Mildred Currie, Glen Davis, Bonnie Dickinson, Leroy Francis, R. M. Francis, Margaret Fulton, Mary Graham, Ramona Hamblen, James Hines, Lela Loudder, Avent Lair, Pearl Mayben, Lyman York McGehee, Martha Miller, Bob Money, Billy Norman, Emil Olson, Glen Olson, Robert Reynolds, Joyce Smith, Lucille Smith, Velton Sorgee, Nell Stevenson, Brynilde Vaughn, J. University of Texas Three Million Dollar Administration-Library Building Completed

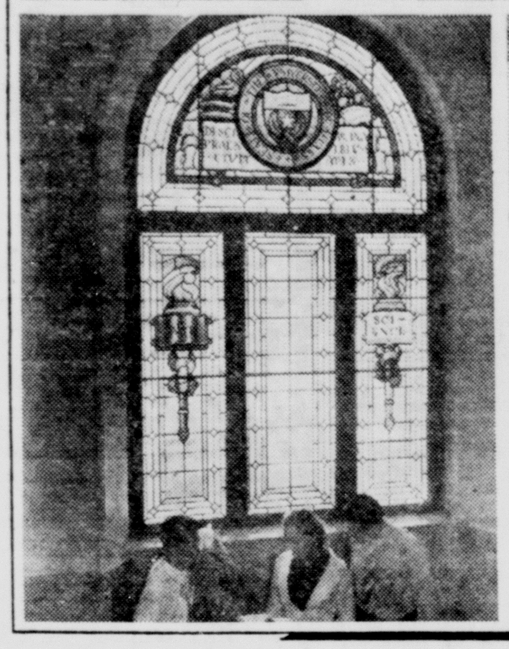
New Administration-Library Building--University of Texas



With only a few minor details yet to be attended to, the new unit of the Administration-Library Building of The University of Texas, located in the center of the main campus at Austin, is ready for occupancy. The cost of the two units comprising the imposing structure, including fixtures and furniture, totaled approximately three million dollars. Not a penny of this sum came from the taxpayers.

From an architectural standpoint, the tower, 308 feet high, with its 28 book-stack stories, is its outstanding feature. Its higher elevation causes it to rise several feet above the Capitol dome. In addition to book stacks, its space will be devoted to offices for a number of members of the faculty.

The new unit of the building contains the offices of the president, registrar, auditor, comptroller, librarian, and dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. Among the many attractive features are two rooms, exposed on three sides, and entirely glass-enclosed, for pleasure reading.

Students who attend the 1937 summer session will be the first to have opportunity to use the building in its completed form.

W. T. High Seniors Plan Socialized Commencement

Commemorate Centennial Anniversary of Education

Socialized Commencement exercises, planed by the graduating class of the Demonstration High School for May 29, will commemorate the centennial anniversary of the beginning of the great educational work of Horace Mann, Miss Helen White Moore, class sponsor, has announced.

Thirty-seven seniors will take part in the graduation exercises, Miss Moore said. The socialized program is presented by the students themselves, no faculty member, school official, or speaker, other than the students, appearing on the stage until the presentation of the diplomas, by Supt. F. E. Savage, closes the exercises. This plan has been used successfully by graduating classes at the Demonstration School in recent years.

Glen Davis, president of the Senior Class will act as chairman. Miss Lucille Smith, as the first speaker on the program, will discuss general conditions in schools before the time of Horace Mann. Mary Graham will follow with a discussion of the first 41 years of Mann's life. Lawrence Hodges, third speaker, will tell of Mann's work in "Champion of a Great Cause." Anita Cleland will discuss the modern school and the challenge left by Mann.

Students in English, art, public speaking, and music are co-operating in the preparation of the program. A fine sketch of Horace Mann has been drawn by Martha Miller, high school art student. Smaller sketches, depicting scenes and conditions during Mann's life, are being prepared by art students under the direction of Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the College art department to be used in connection with the talks.

The high school music department, under the direction of Miss Ada V. Clark, is preparing special music for the occasion. The high school string ensemble group will play, and members of both boys' and girls' choruses will sing. The music is to be suited to the theme of the program.

Diplomas will be presented at the close of the student program by Supt. F. E. Savage. Exercises will begin at eight o'clock Saturday evening, May 29, in the Education Building auditorium.

Rev. R. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the First Christian Church of Amarillo, will deliver the baccalaureate address to the Class at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening at eight o'clock, May 23.

Gerald turned out several good teams while at Panhandle and his regional championship team of last year showed decisively his coaching ability.

He succeeds W. C. Weir at Vernon who has taken a position at Schreiner Institute.

Pat Gerald is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gerald of Canyon.

Buffalo Tennis Squad Sweeps Circuit Winning Four Victories

Stiffest Competition Met As Cadets Are Beaten

Coach W. E. Lockhart's tennis team flared across New Mexico and the Big Bend country last week to annex four intercollegiate tennis victories in four days of play. The netters dropped only two matches in twenty-four played.

Stopping at Portales Junior College for a warm-up match, the Buffs swamped the Garton men without losing a single set in the six matches.

Their real test was met at Roswell, N. M., when they defeated the N. M. M. I. Cadets 14-7. At midtime, the team count was 7-7 as the military men had captured two singles matches. Capitalizing on the consistency of Glyndon Riley and the effective overhead smash of George Smalley, the ranking W. T. duo smothered Murphy and Bedwell, New Mexico Intercollegiate champions, 6-1, 6-4. Curry and Hays defeated Braniff-Scannell 2-6, 6-4, 6-4. In the morning singles matches, Curry had spilled Braniff 6-4, 18-16. Hays had ousted Scannell 6-3, 9-7. Murphy dropped Riley at 6-4, 2-6, 6-3. The sharp Bedwell defeated Smalley 8-6, 1-6, 2-6.

Traveling on to Las Cruces, the Lockhartmen lambasted the New Mexico Aggies 21-0. Riley started matters off with an 8-6, 1-6, 6-2 win over Wilson, and Curry won over Taylor, 6-0, 3-6, 6-4. Hays dropped Sumners 6-2, 6-1. Smalley was in rare form for a 6-1, 6-0 win over Rigney. It was the volleying game of Smalley that carried Riley and Smalley to a 6-1, 6-0 win over Wilson and Taylor in the ranking doubles. Curry and Hays finished with 11-9, 6-4 sets at the expense of Rigney and Sumners.

The Texas School of Mines could not stand up to the pace of the Buffaloes as they won their third dual match in four days without dropping a single match.

Riley staged a surprise win by dropping a left-handed Spaniard, Arroya, in straight sets 6-3, 8-6. Curry at number two out-stroked Lambert 6-1, 6-1. Jack Hays took matters easy in spilling Wilson 6-2, 6-3. Smalley's net game solved the back court game of Davis, 6-0, 6-1. Smalley and Riley defeated Lambert and Arroya, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2. Curry and Hays completed the tour with a defeat over Davis and Wilson, 6-4, 6-2.

The Buff netters finish their season next Saturday against the Texas Tech Matadors on the Tech tennis courts. The Matadors recently took first place in the Border Conference tennis meet.

Young Democrats To Hold Annual Meeting May 29

Dalhart, May 17.—"The ad valorem tax system in Texas is a failure," declared Dallam County Judge Wilson Cowen today. There are many other moot topics such as the Dust Bowl, poll taxes, natural gas conservation in the Panhandle, local law enforcement, which should be discussed at the West Texas Young Democrats annual convention in Dalhart Saturday, May 29, because into the hands of these Young Democrats these issues are being rapidly given.

Continuing on the ad valorem tax system, Judge Cowen said, "It shows a high per cent of delinquency; it is unfair and in some cases discriminatory in valuations between counties and between sections of the state, because each county and therefore each section has a different board of equalization, each of which figures valuations from a different basis.

"This brings on a host of problems. The Older Democrats as well as the young ones should take a hearty part in it at the coming convention in Dalhart. The tax situation is moving rapidly to a crisis."

Let's get right down to the facts. Let's talk about why and how Phillips 66 Poly Gas saves you money.

The reason is simple. Into every gallon of this new-type, cost-cutting gasoline, Phillips packs extra energy units by means of the patented POLYmerization process. The result is twofold. Your motor not only gets more power out of every gallon, but also delivers more miles.

But sudden changes in climate would endanger the economy and improved performance of Phillips 66 Poly Gas, if it were not 100% custom-tailored, matched in advance to your weather in accordance with U. S. Weather Bureau standards.

Why 100%? Because Phillips pioneered the idea of custom-tailoring gasoline to break the vicious connection between changes in weather and changes in motor performance. Because Phillips has carried the process further and made it function more successfully. Because Phillips has greater facilities for custom-tailoring than any other refiner.

That is why no other gasoline, not a single one, is so accurately matched to your weather as Phillips 66 Poly Gas! The Orange and Black 66 Shield is the sign that you can get this improved gasoline which does more—but costs no more.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES

In the past half century engineering science—the product of our schools—has brought to the world unbelievable progress. Science has given us developments and inventions which would have been considered Utopian luxuries only a few years ago. Through the years luxuries have become necessities.

A most important adaptation on natural resources came with the availability of gas for industrial, commercial and domestic uses. Until recent years, gas was used principally for cooking and heating purposes. Science has again shown progress in adapting gas for use in water heating and gas refrigeration that operates economically and silently.

Our company is greatly interested in the welfare of the schools of the territory which it is our pleasure to serve, and we wish well all of those who are connected with these institutions.

Art School Plans Are Made for Palo Duro Canyon Park

Clay deposits in the Palo Duro State Park may prove of great value, according to Gene H. Brock, who is to teach pottery and craftswork in the Palo Duro School of Art this summer.

In a recent letter to Miss Isabel Robinson, director of the school, Mr. Brock writes, "I have just completed the tests on the clay and find them very interesting. The mauve colored clay will be fine for coloring—it is as fine as I have found. I am hoping that the many colored clays in the canyon have permanent colors. I have found that the yellow clay will be very good with the addition of a small amounts of felvspar."

A kiln for firing pottery will be a part of the equipment of the Art Colony which will open on June second and continue for six weeks.

Tent cottages are being erected by the park service for the use of art students and classes will be held in Coronado Lodge as they were in 1936.

Panhandle artists who will be on the faculty of the school include Mrs. Amy Jackson, Amarillo; Harold Bugbee, Clarendon; Carroll Killebrew, Pampa; Marilyn Miller and Miss Isabel Robinson, Canyon.

Mrs. Frances O'Brien Garfield of Philadelphia and New York City will be artist-in-residence. Mrs. Garfield is author of "You Can Draw," which is considered one of the best books on art that has appeared in recent years.

work. He has played one spring and summer in pro baseball with the Boston Red Sox and three years with minor league teams. He has coached and played professional basketball.

Dougal weighs 194 pounds and is six feet, one inch tall. He graduated from Temple in 1932.

When Dougal took over the Smethport High School position, the school had a football record of 10 wins in seven years. His teams there won 20 games and lost ten.

Warner Praises Him

Pop Warner was high in his praise for Dougal, the veteran wizard coach saying in part: "He was an outstanding tackle on Temple varsity teams for three years, and proved himself to be a keen student of the game . . . his coaching success has been a tribute to his fine knowledge of the theoretical as well as the practical application of his knowledge of athletics and health education."

Earl R. Yeomans, Temple's director of athletics, says, "Dougal is one of the finest young men and most capable athletes ever to graduate from Temple . . ."

John Da Grassa, former line coach at Temple and now president of the American Football Institute, writes of Dougal, "There is no one that I would recommend more highly than this young man . . ."

Baggett Elated

There are several other splendid recommendations, one coming from Harry A. Cochrane, Temple University dean.

Al Baggett, West Texas State head coach and athletic director, was jubilant over Dougal's selection.

"I am confident that Tony Dougal's enthusiastic application of his knowledge will be of great help to us and I am happy he is coming to West Texas," beamed Big Al.

Social Security Man Will Spend June 1 Explaining Set Up

Jacob G. James of the Social Security Board, will be in Canyon, Tuesday, June 1st, to interview public officials, civic leaders, employers, and employees on phases of the Social Security Act.

James is on a tour of the Dallas district, in an effort to bring about better public understanding of the provisions of the Social Security law.

In a letter to the Chamber of Commerce, the Social Security Board official said one of the purposes of Mr. James' visit here would be to enlist the support of local officials and civic groups in a campaign to assign social security account numbers to every worker covered by old-age benefits section of the law. Although the majority of workers in covered employments now have their cards, it is believed that there are yet many eligible employees who have not applied for numbers.

Since application for account numbers may be filed through the local postoffice until June 30, it was pointed out that employees who have not yet applied should do so now. After June 30 it will be necessary to communicate with the Dallas Social Security Board field office in order to establish a Social Security account.

Many of our citizens will be glad to meet Mr. James, who is well informed regarding all phases of the Social Security program. He will be able to advise our people regarding records that should be kept.

Persons who have been employed in covered employment since December 31, 1936, and have become 65 are eligible to file a claim for 3½ per cent of the wages received between January 1 and the time they become 65. Nearest relatives of eligible deceased workers also have the right to file claims for death payments. Mr. James will have claim forms and will be glad to assist eligible persons to file their claims.

Rotarians Consider International Peace at Tuesday Lunch

Irby Carruth lead in a discussion of International Peace at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday. Articles from the May issue of The Rotarian were discussed.

Emil Hutto discussed an article on the work of Rotary as it promoted world wide goodwill and peace.

Dean Bob Jarrett discussed "Way to Peace," by an English economist, who pointed out that the world was headed toward another world war unless something was done to prevent it. Nations are spending more for war preparation today than they were before 1914, and all European nations had larger standing armies than in 1914. However, the people of today are conscious of the dangers of war; they know that all the world would be involved; that war means advantage to none and suffering to all; that the only way to peace was through service, not conquest.

Visitors present were: Phil Durdum and Dr. W. B. Stevenson of Amarillo; Harvey A. Poorbaugh of Roswell.
